CAFE THAI Tapas

In Thailand, there is no such thing as a starter. Each dish comes out when it's ready; all dishes are shared and enjoyed together especially in the evening with a few drinks. Since tapas means light snacks in Spanish which are usually eaten with drinks, where everyone gets to try a bit of everything on the table. We thought that the concept is similar to our way of dining too because sharing is the main etiquette of eating in Thailand. We love sharing, eating small bites and of course drinking. And that gave us enough reason to call our cuisine upstairs 'Thai Tapas'!
